- Drug Distribution

We Defend All Clients with Vigorous Determination

Our family-owned law firm was established in 1973, and since then we have represented clients charged with all types of crimes ranging from traffic violations to serious felonies.

If you need a strong criminal defense against a misdemeanor or felony charge, we can make a difference. When you contact our Utah drug possession defense attorneys for a free initial consultation, we will listen carefully to find out all of the facts. We have the financial resources to thoroughly investigate the arrest and interview all witnesses. Because of our extensive trial experience, we will pursue all appropriate legal avenues to see that you are treated fairly in court.

We will work with you and explain all of the possible outcomes – dismissal, reduction of charges, requesting probation, or asking for leniency from the judge. If the prosecutor will not dismiss the case or reduce the charges and a trial is in your best interests, we will have already done much of the groundwork for a successful trial effort.

For honest, effective, and non-judgmental legal advice regarding your Utah drug or narcotic possession, our criminal defense attorneys at Wall & Wall, P.C., will mount a passionate defense on your behalf.
