Have you been arrested or charged with a DUI or drunk driving in the state of Utah? Our DUI lawyers, DUI attorney salt lake city, from Wall & Wall, P.C. in Salt Lake City have the background and knowledge to give you the accurate legal advice you need – from the initial arrest until the matter has been resolved. We can explain your rights under Utah’s implied consent laws, and advise you on whether or not you are required to submit to a blood test or breathalyzer exam.

Your Driving Can be Impaired by Things Other Than Alcohol

You may need the services of a skilled DUI defense attorney even if you have not been drinking. If your eyes appear bloodshot and you seem to be driving under the influence of drugs, even legal ones, you may be stopped by the police. Prescription medications such as Vicodin can contribute to a narcotic DUI or metabolite DUI charge. Anything that impairs your ability to drive can give be a basis for a driving under the influence charge.

What Happens After You Are Charged?

At Wall & Wall, P.C., our team of criminal defense lawyers will offer you a free initial consultation to get the facts of your case. After a thorough investigation and an analysis of the police reports, we will present your side of the case to the court. In many cases, the charges may be reduced or dropped entirely.

There is a Separate Hearing for Driving Privileges

In Utah, arrested persons have to deal with a DOL (Department of Licensing) hearing along with the criminal case. This administrative hearing needs to be requested within 10 days. Failure to do this in a timely manner will result in a driver’s license suspension or loss of driving privileges.
